ITEM: 8RESCUE EXPO '97*FILE NUMBER: GF008/001 PT13/CSVREPORT:

A request has been received from the Rescue Expo '97 Organising Committee which is made up of volunteers from Hawkesbury State Emergency Service and the Hawkesbury Bushfire Brigades for sponsorship of Rescue Expo '97 which will be held over three days at Hawkesbury Showground from 16 May, 1997.

Those participating in the Expo include emergency services in NSW and approximately 150 companies who service and support these groups. The Expo will be open to both emergency service personnel and the public. The theme of the Expo for 1997 is 'Emergency Services Working Together'. Approximately 25,000 people are expected to attend over the three days of the event. A Rescue Expo was last held in the Hawkesbury in 1993 which was supported by Council.

The co-sponsorship package of $2,000 has been offered for this event which includes coverage in promotional programs for the Expo, inclusion of logos on stationery and promotional material as well as involvement in the Expo in May. Alternative arrangements for support have not been presented.

Information regarding the Expo will be distributed to main stream media and emergency services including Police, Fire Brigades, Ambulance Stations, SES Units and Bushfire Brigades.

Should there be any profit from this event it will be shared between Hawkesbury SES, Hawkesbury Bush Fire Brigades, Careflight, the new Children's Hospital - Westmead, St John Ambulance (Hawkesbury) and Hawkesbury Radio.

Should a contribution be made to this event, a funding allocation could be made from the donations budget.

RECOMMENDATION:

That a donation of $2,000 (two thousand dollars) be made as sponsorship of Rescue Expo '97.
